

Policy: Declaration or Change in Major or Program

Effective: June 1, 2019

Policy Type: Administrative

Responsible Department: Registrar's Office

Policy: In order to facilitate accurate advising and assure fulfillment of degree-program requirements, students should formally declare or change their major(s) and minor(s) through the Registrar's Office.

Undergraduate

- 1.0 Students may add or drop a major or minor using the form provided by the Registrar's Office.
- 2.0 Undergraduate students must indicate the type of degree they are pursuing (e.g., BA, BS).
- 3.0 Some programs, such as programs in School of Education, Nursing, and the Engineering Program, may have additional policies regarding declaring a major or admission to a program. Students should discuss program-specific policies with their academic advisors or consult that department's program materials for additional information.

Change of Major forms for undergraduate students and Change of Program forms for graduate students are available online and in the Registrar's Office.
